

Hamid Hussain is a Vice President of Operations and Finance for Lyka. Mr. Hussain oversees all financial operation matters of Lyka's worldwide businesses. He also performs management development and strategic planning activities.

Mr. Hussain is pioneer in providing cost effective solutions focused on increasing ROI and enabling companies to make effective use of technology to reduce costs. In his words "We are partnering with current and future customers of Lyka to appropriately leverage for maximizing results for the designated market".

In his previous roles in the areas of Finance and Operations Management, Mr. Hussain has provided cost effective solutions for UTStarcom, 3Com and Motorola Mr. Hamid Hussain was instrumental in managing and providing solutions for mergers and acquisitions, designing and implementing outsourcing solutions and implementing cost based solutions models.